Lucía Céspedes (Érudit / Université de Montréal, Canada)
Who Needs National Journals? Dissemination Strategies in Canadian Scholarly Communication

Malena Méndez Isla (Université de Montréal, Canada)
Mapping the Use of Machine Learning Techniques to Answer Research Questions: Implications for Open Science and Academic Autonomy

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3

09.00-11.00

Panel 2 – The state of affairs in global, regional and national data sources and coverage studies

Chair: Gabriel Vélez-Cuartas (University of Antioquia, Colombia)

Jorge Polanco (University of Costa Rica, Costa Rica)
Latindex Discoverer and Its Interaction with Other Open Scientific Infrastructures

Carolina Pradier (Université de Montréal, Canada)
A world of scholarship: What journals using Open Journal Systems add to the scholarly record

Maximiliano Salatino (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)
Judgment and Appropriation: A Relational Typology of Scholarly Information Systems

Christoph Müller (Ibero-Amerikanisches Institut, Germany)

Information infrastructures as the foundation for reliable knowledge sharing

11.00-11.15 Coffee ☕

11.15-13.00

Panel 3 – The cultural and infrastructural shift to quality-diamond scholarly publishing

Chair: Maximiliano Salatino (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

Juan Pablo Alperin (Simon Fraser University)
Beyond the Label: Ownership, Governance, and Resilience in Diamond Open Access

Fernanda Beigel (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)
Diamondalisation under scrutiny: a counterpoint between ALMASI and the Latin American indexation system

Gonzalo Villarreal, Enzo Rucci, Juan Cruz Mazullo, Lautaro Josin Saller, Ignacio Gallardo, Pablo De Albuquerque (PREBI-SEDICI - National University of La Plata), Milagros Pandolfo (CECIC – National University of Mar del Plata), Manuel Bruccoleri (CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo), Fernanda Beigel (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)
RADAR Project: A catalog of diamond Open-Access scientific journals from the academic community

Ignacio Gallardo (PREBI-SEDICI - National University of La Plata), Manuel Bruccoleri (CECIC, FCPyS, Universidad Nacional de Cuyo), Milagros Pandolfo (CECIC – National University of Mar del Plata)
Analysis of metadata consistency across regional and global journal sources

13.00-14.00 Lunch 🍽 - Business meeting OPEN RAM PROJECT

14.00-16.00

Panel 4 – Open infrastructures for participatory experiences with multisources

Chair: Ismael Rafols García (Universiteit Leiden, Netherlands)

Rodrigo Costas Comesaña (Universiteit Leiden, Netherlands)
The multiversatory of science: the MultiObs project at UNICAMP

Alysson Fernandes Mazoni (Universidade Estadual de Campinas, Brazil)
Data infrastructures for research visibility and scientometrics: the MultiObs project

Gabriel Vélez-Cuartas (University of Antioquia, Colombia)
Territorial Layers and Specialised Functions in the Open Research Information Ecosystem

Juan Cruz Mazullo, Lautaro Josin Saller, Ignacio Gallardo (PREBI-SEDICI - National University of La Plata)
Implementation of interoperability mechanisms with regional databases to enrich metadata in HERA

16.00-16.15 Coffee

16.15-17.45

Panel 5 – Circulation of knowledge and academic asymmetries

Chair: Peter Birle (Ibero-Amerikanisches Institut, Germany)

Niki Vermeulen (University of Edinburgh, Scotland)
Evaluating global university partnerships

Víctor Montoya (CECIC – National University of San Martin)
Languages, circulation, and Open Access in the Brazilian social sciences: a bibliometric and lexicometric analysis of scientific output in Portuguese and English
