PROGRAMME

WORKSHOP CECIC

Towards inclusive and participatory frameworks for open science and research assessment

December 2–4, 2026

Cilindro Central CICUNC — National University of Cuyo, Mendoza

AT A GLANCE

Wed 2 Dec 14.30–17.00	PANEL 1 Commercial versus community-led publishing: different routes of access or different fields?
Thu 3 Dec 09.00–11.00	PANEL 2 The state of affairs in global, regional and national data sources and coverage studies
Thu 3 Dec 11.15–13.00	PANEL 3 The cultural and infrastructural shift to quality-diamond scholarly publishing
Thu 3 Dec 14.00–16.00	PANEL 4 Open infrastructures for participatory experiences with multisources
Thu 3 Dec 16.15-18.00	PANEL 5 Circulation of knowledge and academic asymmetries
Fri 4 Dec 09.00–10.45	PANEL 6 Open data and digital sovereignty: challenges, asymmetries and resistances
Fri 4 Dec 11.00–13.00	PANEL 7 Evaluation reform and multi-scalar research agendas
Fri 4 Dec 14.00–17.00	PANEL 8 Case studies and new tools for the contextualization of research assessment

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2

14.00–14.30 Opening

14.30–17.00 PANEL 1

Commercial versus community-led publishing: different routes of access or different fields?

Chair · Fernanda Beigel (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

On the Power Structures of Scholarly Publishing: Corporate Organization, Financialization, and the Symbolic Economy of Editorship

Pierre Benz (Université de Montréal, Canada)

The geopolitics of editing: perspectives from Editors-in-Chief of SciELO Brazil journals

Carolina Nascimento (University College Dublin, Ireland)

Seeking normality in an increasingly abnormal context. Conflicting practices and rationales when it comes to paying Article Processing Charges (APCs) from Argentina

Osvaldo Gallardo (CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

Who Needs National Journals? Dissemination Strategies in Canadian Scholarly Communication

Lucía Céspedes (Érudit / Université de Montréal, Canada)

Mapping the Use of Machine Learning Techniques to Answer Research Questions: Implications for Open Science and Academic Autonomy

Malena Méndez Isla (Université de Montréal, Canada)

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3

09.00–11.00

PANEL 2

The state of affairs in global, regional and national data sources and coverage studies

Chair · Gabriel Vélez-Cuartas (University of Antioquia, Colombia)

Latindex Discoverer and Its Interaction with Other Open Scientific Infrastructures

Jorge Polanco (University of Costa Rica, Costa Rica)

A world of scholarship: What journals using Open Journal Systems add to the scholarly record

Carolina Pradier (Université de Montréal, Canada)

Judgment and Appropriation: A Relational Typology of Scholarly Information Systems

Maximiliano Salatino (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

Information infrastructures as the foundation for reliable knowledge sharing

Christoph Müller (Ibero-Amerikanisches Institut, Germany)

11.00–11.15 Coffee

11.15–13.00

PANEL 3

The cultural and infrastructural shift to quality-diamond scholarly publishing

Chair · Maximiliano Salatino (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

Beyond the Label: Ownership, Governance, and Resilience in Diamond Open Access

Juan Pablo Alperin (Simon Fraser University)

Diamondalisation under scrutiny: a counterpoint between ALMASI and the Latin American indexation system

Fernanda Beigel (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

RADAR Project: A catalog of diamond Open-Access scientific journals from the academic community

Gonzalo Villarreal, Enzo Rucci, Juan Cruz Mazullo, Lautaro Josin Saller, Ignacio Gallardo, Pablo De Albuquerque (PREBI-SEDICI – National University of La Plata), Milagros Pandolfo (CECIC – National University of Mar del Plata), Manuel Bruccoleri (CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo), Fernanda Beigel (INCIHUSA, CONICET – CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

Analysis of metadata consistency across regional and global journal sources

Ignacio Gallardo (PREBI-SEDICI – National University of La Plata), Manuel Bruccoleri (CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo), Milagros Pandolfo (CECIC – National University of Mar del Plata)

13.00–14.00

Lunch · OpenRAM project business meeting

14.00–16.00

PANEL 4

Open infrastructures for participatory experiences with multisources

Chair · Ismael Ràfols García (Universiteit Leiden, Netherlands)

The multiversatory of science: the MultiObs project at UNICAMP

Rodrigo Costas Comesaña (Universiteit Leiden, Netherlands)

Data infrastructures for research visibility and scientometrics: the MultiObs project

Alysson Fernandes Mazoni (Universidade Estadual de Campinas, Brazil)

Territorial Layers and Specialised Functions in the Open Research Information Ecosystem

Gabriel Vélez-Cuartas (University of Antioquia, Colombia)

Implementation of interoperability mechanisms with regional databases to enrich metadata in HERA

Juan Cruz Mazullo, Lautaro Josin Saller, Ignacio Gallardo (PREBI-SEDICI – National University of La Plata)

16.00–16.15 Coffee

16.15-18.00

PANEL 5

Circulation of knowledge and academic asymmetries

Chair · Peter Birle (Ibero-Amerikanisches Institut, Germany)

Evaluating global university partnerships

Niki Vermeulen (University of Edinburgh, Scotland)

Beyond Excellence. Recommendations for More Equitable Research Cooperation Cultures

Sarah Wessel (Berlin Center for Global Engagement BCGE, Germany)

Languages, circulation, and Open Access in the Brazilian social sciences: a bibliometric and lexicometric analysis of scientific output in Portuguese and English

Víctor Montoya (CECIC – National University of San Martín)

The Historical Trajectory of "Marxism and the Oppression of Women": Reception, Rediscovery, and Circulation

Natsumi Shokida (Université de Montréal, Canada)

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4

09.00–10.45

PANEL 6

Open data and digital sovereignty: challenges, asymmetries and resistances

Chair · Jorge Polanco-Cortés (University of Costa Rica, Costa Rica)

Between Openness and Reservations: How German Political Scientists Engage with Open Data and Open Access

Peter Birle (Ibero-Amerikanisches Institut, Germany)

PANEL 6 — CONTINUED

A typology of attitudes toward the production and circulation of open data in the context of Open Science and a budget crisis

Valentina Arias (FCPyS – National University of Cuyo) and Osvaldo Gallardo (CONICET, CECIC – FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

Altruistic or Strategic? Differing Perspectives Among CONICET Researchers in San Juan on Publishing Their Datasets

Victor Algañaraz and Gonzalo Castillo (CECIC – National University of San Juan)

Ambiguous Relationships: Anthropology in the Context of Open Science

Barbara Göbel (Ibero-Amerikanisches Institut, Germany)

10.45–11.00 Coffee

11.00–13.00

PANEL 7

Evaluation reform and multi-scalar research agendas

Chair · Fabiana Bekerman (CECIC – National University of Cuyo)

Do diversity initiatives harm science? The case of the Canada Research Chairs Program

Vincent Larivière (Université de Montréal, Canada)

Science as a Trend? Institutions and Agenda-Setting in Neuroscience Research

Diego Kozlowski (Université de Montréal, Canada)

Explorations on alignments and misalignments between research agendas and societal needs

Ismael Ràfols García (Universiteit Leiden, Netherlands)

See you in court! Judicial and ombudsman remedies in research career assessment

Janne Pölönen (Finnish Society of Sciences and Letters, Finland)

13.00–14.00 Lunch

14.00–17.00

PANEL 8

Case studies and new tools for the contextualization of research assessment

Chair · Mario Pecheny (University of Buenos Aires; CONICET)

CoARA@FUB: initial insights from mapping the current organisational landscape at the university

Julian Vuorimäki (Freie Universität Berlin, Germany)

Case 1: Establishing Responsible Evaluation. Notes on the Design of a Call for Proposals in the Social Sciences · Case 2: A Journal Ranking Tool for CONICET?

Fabiana Bekerman, Maximiliano Salatino and Fernanda Beigel (CECIC, FCPyS, National University of Cuyo)

Presentation of a Qualitative Assessment Tool

Janne Pölönen (Finnish Society of Sciences and Letters, Finland)

HERA 3.X: Adding Features for Evaluating Researchers and Other Improvements

Enzo Rucci and Gonzalo Villarreal (PREBI-SEDICI – National University of La Plata)

Design and implementation of an academic data warehouse to measure the visibility and impact of institutional scientific output

Pablo De Albuquerque (PREBI-SEDICI – National University of La Plata)

17.00–17.30

Closure

University Center – Parque Gral. San Martín – Mendoza (5500), Argentina · Tel. +54 261 4135008

cecic.fcp.uncuyo.edu.ar · cecic@gmail.com